

Homework 7

1. What is the highest dimension of nontrivial persistent features one should see in a weighted ring lattice graph? What about a graph made from points on a sphere?
2. How would you design a graph model (or an edge-weighting scheme) to generate a weighted graph with only nontrivial persistent homology in dimension